

Private Equity Operations Internship – Corporate/Strategy Consulting

Family Trust Investor FTI GmbH is a fast-growing Munich-based private equity fund (www.familytrust.de). We acquire medium-sized companies as part of succession situations and also specialize in buy & build concepts. Core element of the investment strategy is the operational support of the portfolio companies. Our experienced team of consultants supports the companies on site through efficient hands-on project management to leverage operational potential and realize value enhancement. This includes the implementation of management succession, the professionalization of structures and processes, and the handling of acquisitions as part of consolidation strategies. For one of our portfolio companies we are looking for an

Intern (m/f/d) for at least 12 weeks to support the management in the development and implementation of projects and strategies

Your area of responsibility and tasks include:

- Participate in various projects to improve competitiveness and increase company value from analysis to final implementation, in the areas of finance, purchasing, sales, corporate management and business development
- Active support of the management on site in the analysis and identification of improvement potentials along the entire value chain
- Independent implementation of individual measures with active support from experienced operations managers
- Coordination of central initiatives and measures as well as preparation of decision-making bases & reporting for the management board
- Preparation of investor and bank reports
- Support for add-on transactions

What you should bring with you:

- You are in the advanced stages of your bachelor's or master's degree in economics, engineering or natural sciences with very good grades
- Very good analytical and quantitative skills, structured way of working
- High level of commitment and willingness to travel, sense of humor, initiative and entrepreneurial thinking
- Practical experience through internships in management consulting or in a start-up environment desirable
- Confident handling of MS Office (especially Excel and Powerpoint)
- Strong communication skills, fluent in German and English

We offer you a direct and comprehensive insight into all facets of private equity operations as well as challenging and varied tasks in a very experienced and dynamic team. You will have the opportunity to work on important decisions together with the management and gain extensive management/strategy experience. During your internship you will be supervised by a mentor and together we will promote your professional and personal development. In case of outstanding performance, an offer for a later career entry at one of our portfolio companies is possible!
